If you have a question about your order, invoice or payment, please call our customer services department on +44 (0)1438 767328 or email sales@theiet.org. If you have a general enquiry about any of our publications, please call +44 (0)1438 765540 or email books@theiet.org.

Satisfaction Guarantee

If at all unsatisfied, you may return book(s) within 30 days in new condition for a full refund. Please call +44 (0)1438 767328 or email sales@theiet.org in advance for written authorisation. Damaged returns should be accompanied by the original packing material; all returns should include a copy of the invoice.

Member Discounts

Institution members are entitled to a 20% discount on book purchases; quote membership number when ordering. All orders must be made directly with the Institution to qualify for discount. Member discounts relate to individual purchase and are not transferable.

Call for Authors

We are always pleased to hear from authors wishing to submit manuscripts or proposals for new publications. Our books cover a wide range of topics relevant to practising engineers, academics, researchers, students and managers in related fields internationally. We offer a complete professional service in publishing, including competitive royalties, excellent author support, a speedy and flexible production process including redrawing facilities, and a dynamic sales and marketing operation in the UK and in the USA. To contribute to the future, make your mark in your field, and return something to the profession, why not write for The Institution of Engineering and Technology? Please contact books@theiet.org for further information.

Journals

All subscription rates are inclusive of postage and delivery to subscribers. Airmail delivery is available for a supplementary charge. All journals are supplied on a prepaid subscription basis for a calendar year. We are happy to accept subscriptions at any time during the year; all issues published previously that year will be supplied. Cancellation after service has commenced will incur a cancellation charge. We are unable to accept cancellations when a subscription has been in force for more than four months. All claims for non-delivery should be made within four months of publication date. For full details of online services, pricing options, single/back issues and other information, please visit www.theiet.org/journals or email journals@theiet.org
